Four More Runs.

In the seventh session Myers walked and stole second. Mandonaid was safe when Wood failed to touch first after when Wood failed to touch first after getting the bail ahead of the runner, and then Riddle walked, filling the bases. Have singled to left, scoring Myers and Macdonaid. On the throwing Plunkett threw over Hines' head at third and Riddle crossed the plate. Zachary went out die crossed the plate. Zachary went out and the Plunkett, who made a neat stop and peg, and then Hoffecker scored Hayes with a dy to Milter. Loomis, hitting for Morriz, who was injured in the previous inning, got a cheap double to right, and then Wood took care of Davis' hard drive, rettring the side.

Mike Macdonald's crew of Bankers fumped on one Mr. Seitz in the third in-ning of the Section A game yeaterday, showing four runs over the pan. This was emought to enable the Bankers to dinch the second game of the series, with Fetworth on the losing end. The final count was a to 2 with the teams just about as much spart as the score, the score, the score, the score, and the series of the word. In hitting redding, and base running, the Capital City Leaguers showed their superiority over the Federal Circuit pennant winners. The Bank clarks clouted out twelve safe these while Federal count of the score of bingies. of the contest, while Hoffecker pitch a classy game all the way.

FLITTER GOLD LANDS FIRST

Baratoga, N. Y., Aug. II.—Whiskbroom, the peerless son of the great sire of the same name, winner of the Metropolitan handicap in record time this year, will soon change owners if Harry Payne Whitney will consider $40,000 for the horse. This is the price which, it was rumored today, "Jeff" Livingston has offered Mr. Whitney for Whiskbroom and it is said the latter has instructed his trainer to sell any of his horses if he could find buyers.
